Readings:

Dt 4:1-2, 6-8

Jas 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

"Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." In the days of Jesus, this issue was about performing empty external rituals of cleanliness instead of purifying the heart. For most of us, the issue is probably a bit different. Our fixation on externals is not so much with religious prescriptions and practices; instead, our daily obsession tends to be with appearances in general. In our media-saturated culture, we are extremely tuned in to how things look. We are trained to respond to current fashion trends in clothing, hair, makeup, and accessories. Even bodies, cars, houses, and landscaping all fall into the realm of highly marketed images. The risk for us is to be so concerned with having the right "look" on the outside that we fail to consider what's happening on the inside.

Life is about more than what we have or what we parade around for others to see. As human beings we are a unity of body and soul, and if we neglect our souls, then we are neglecting the fulfillment of our human nature. We need to make sure we are not like the Pharisees in today's reading who were too concerned with outside appearances. Jesus tells us in response to them that "from within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile." This list makes a good starting point for some personal meditation on our interior life. Let's ask ourselves, "Which of the behaviors on this list threaten to defile my soul?" Then, let's ask the Holy Spirit to help purify us of that spiritual ugliness so we can appear beautiful in the sight of God.

Please contact Campus Minister Jenna Koster at jenna.koster@stisidores.com with any questions. This month's theme will be "Keeping the Faith Through Your College Years."

Music Ministry

A great way to be involved at St. Isidore's is through our music ministry. Our program includes cantors, instrumentalists, and three choirs. Choirs are accompanied by piano, guitar, and various instruments, rehearse once weekly, and sing at one of the following Sunday Masses - 9:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m., or 4:30 p.m. Cantors and pianists lead the music at the 5:00 p.m. Saturday and the 6:00 p.m. Sunday Masses. If you are interested, please call Frank at 539-7496, or come to one of the rehearsals held every Tuesday and Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. upstairs in the Music Room.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The purpose of this ministry is to reach out to someone in need of comfort after a loss, in times of stress, before a medical procedure, during an illness, etc., through a prayer shawl. Shawls can be knitted or crocheted, and all skill levels are welcome. The group meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m., beginning this Wednesday, Sept. 2, in the Upper Room. Newcomers are welcome!
