November 15, 2015 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings

Dn 12:1-3

Heb 10:11-14, 18

Mk 13:24-32

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." It may strike us as odd that there are things that the angels don't know. But it's even more surprising that Jesus--the Son of God--would have been unaware of the divine schedule for the end of the world. Given all of this, should it come as any surprise that there are things that God chooses not to reveal to us right now?

In his wisdom, God knows when the timing is right to reveal his plans to us. The fact that we don't know everything helps us remember that we are not God. We are his creatures, dependent upon him for our existence, our sustenance, and for the hour of our death too. In this era of instant Internet information, advanced diagnostic medical tests, and statistical surveys predicting future trends, it's hard to accept the fact that there are some things we just can't know. But this reality should keep us humble, reminding us that we don't have to know everything because we are in the powerful hands of a loving God.

Thus, any attempt to "see the future" through psychic mediums like palm reading, tarot cards, or astrology suggests a kind of distrust in God. As the catechism states, such practices "contradict the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone" (§2116). As much as we might want to know when the world will end, when our dreams will come true, or when our problems will cease, we are called to walk in faith, accepting what God chooses to reveal and trusting that even our moments of uncertainty are part of his benevolent plan for us. As today's psalm declares, "you will show me the path to life." What else do we really need to know?

This campaign gives us an opportunity to exercise our faith and offer hope to others. If you would like to donate, place your contribution in an envelope marked "Campaign for Human Development" and drop it in the collection next weekend. ## Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, we traditionally remember and pray for those who have died. Here at St. Isidore's, we do this in a special way with our Book of Remembrance. If you have deceased family members and friends that you would like our St. Isidore's community to pray for, please pick up a remembrance sheet from the book in the Chapel. Complete the form, and place it back in the book, which will have a prominent place in the Chapel during the entire month.

Spiritual Works of Mercy

During the month of November we are called to remember our dearly departed in a special way through prayers, petitions, and other remembrances. We are called to observe the spiritual and corporal works of mercy which form us more fully in the life of grace bestowed in baptism. To pray for the living and the dead is an obligation for every Christian; and especially in the Church's offering the sacrifice of the Mass we fulfill the suffrages for the dead. Throughout the year we continue to remember our loved ones, our family and friends. You may have noticed that in the weekday and Sunday Masses there are special intentions for which that Mass is offered. Such suffrages that are said on behalf of a person are a comfort to those who believe. These Mass intentions are an important part of our life here at St. Isidore's, as the Church echoes the intercession of Our Lady's to "pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen" For more information on requesting Mass intentions contact Mary Lou in the office.

Hot Chocolate for Heifer

"Don't let what you can't do interfere with what you can do" - John Wooden. We may not be able to lift the 3 billion people currently living in poverty to a higher standard of living today, but we can certainly make progress towards this mission. Heifer International is a non-profit that provides animals to families in developing communities around the world along with the knowledge to best take advantage of what the animal produces. The animal's offspring is passed on to other community members in order to create a lasting impact. The St. Isidore's Student Leadership Team is hosting Hot Chocolate for Heifer to support this great cause. Look for the table with warm, refreshing hot chocolate outside the lobby after Mass. Free-will donations in exchange for hot chocolate are greatly appreciated! Donate online at <http://tinyurl.com/isidores>

800th Jubilee of the Dominican Order: Preaching God's Mercy

a) to the Jubilee celebrations as determined in the letter of request in which they will devoutly participate.

b) in the churches and places of worship of the Dominican family that they will visit on pilgrimage and where they will meditate before the Blessed Sacrament for a suitable period of time, concluding with the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the Jubilee prayer, and the invocation at the Blessed Virgin Mary of the Most Holy Rosary.
