Readings:

Lk 19:28-40
Is 50:4-7
Ps 22:8-9, 17-20, 23-24
Phil 2:6-11
Lk 22:14—23:56

"Pilate addressed them a third time, 'What evil has this man done? I found him guilty of no capital crime.'" The Palm Sunday Gospel readings present a sad picture of grown-ups who succumb to peer pressure. Three times, Pilate proclaimed that Jesus was not guilty. But yet, he gave in to the mounting pressure from the crowd, whose "voices prevailed... and he handed Jesus over to them." Also, during the opening Gospel at the procession of palms, we see the adoring crowds hailing Jesus as "the king who comes in the name of the Lord," but only too soon the chorus changes as the voice of the crowd cries out, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" What happened to Jesus' loyal supporters? How did the mob mentality overtake them all? Then too, we have Peter, who in comfortable company with Jesus and his friends promised eternal faithfulness. But when others began asking uncomfortable questions, he caved: "Woman, I do not know him."

These three scenarios give us a chance to reflect on our own faithfulness as we journey into Holy Week. Like Pilate, do we know the truth but abandon it when it becomes unpopular? Public opinion these days declares much church teaching to have fallen out of favor—will we renege like Pilate or stand fast to the faith? The fickle crowds demonstrate another kind of weakness, where instead of thinking for themselves, people just followed those around them. Are we guilty of this kind of passive intellectual laziness? How about Peter's problem: do we change our story based on current company, or do we live as consistent Christian witnesses in the world? This week, may we have the courage to accompany Jesus all the way to the cross, no matter what anyone else may do.

The Dumb Ox Brown Bag Lunch Series—starts Monday!

St Thomas Aquinas, one of the outstanding Catholic thinkers, was taunted by his classmates as being a "dumb ox." This series will look at the man in four parts: Aquinas the Person, who he was, his family and history on March 21; Aquinas the Philosopher, how he sought truth no matter where it was to be found on March 28; Aquinas the Theologian, how he sought to understand the Catholic Faith in its fullness on April 4; and Aquinas the Mystic, his spirituality and Eucharistic devotion on April 18. This is a noon time brown bag series for students and parishioners, so bring your lunch and share in the learning of this saint's life and times. We will begin shortly after noon to allow for arrivals from classes and end just before 1:00. Water and tea will be provided, so come and be fed in mind and body. This series is open to all.

*As you know, this is the 800th anniversary of the Dominican Order. These bulletin inserts help us to better know the legacy of St. Dominic. God bless,
Fr. Mike & Fr. Bob*

Cooperator Brothers

The foundation of the Dominican Order by St. Dominic took root in a small band of brothers. Most Catholics think of the Dominicans as a community of priests but from its beginnings it included lay friars. In its 800 year history, there have always been brothers among the Dominican friars finding various ways to preach the Good News of Jesus Christ. In addition to the many works they do, they are a constant reminder that the essence of the Dominican Order is the consecrated life. The official title of the Dominican Order is the "Order of the Brothers Preachers." The most well know Dominican Brother was St. Martin de Porres who dedicated his life to the service of the poor in Lima, Peru. There many other brothers who are counted among the saints and the blessed of the Church.

Today, Dominican Brothers are an integral part of the community sharing in the preaching charism by teaching, catechizing, administration, social services and as missionaries. They are expressing the common priesthood of Jesus given to all Christians in the context of the vowed life. They are a sign to the laity of the many pathways they can choose to serve in the context of their vocation. The responsibility for the mission of the Church rests on all the baptized. The Dominican Brothers offer the Church an 800 year-old model of actively living our baptismal commitment.
