March 27, 2016 Easter Sunday

Readings:

Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

Col 3:1-4

Jn 20:1-9

"But Peter got up and ran to the tomb." Peter was unique in this response to the news of Jesus' resurrection. The other apostles disregarded the reports from the women who had seen the empty tomb and heard the angels because "their story seemed like nonsense and they did not believe them." But Peter took action. He got up and ran to see the evidence and "went home amazed at what had happened."

On this Easter day, we have a choice to make. We too have heard a remarkable report. We have been told that two thousand years ago, a man named Jesus defeated death and rose from the grave. To many people in today's world, this sounds like nonsense, just like it did when it first happened. Some would like to dismiss the story entirely as a myth at best, or an outright lie at worst. Others try to spiritualize the miracle, suggesting that the Resurrection narrative is a story that is meant to symbolize the power of God, but whether or not Jesus actually rose from the dead is irrelevant. Finally, there are those who simply believe--those who, with Peter, make an act of faith and choose to take the Gospel literally.

This of course is the Christian way. It was not the Crucifixion that brought confidence to the early followers of Christ; it was the Resurrection. This momentous event has always made all the difference! We will only water down our faith if we reduce Easter to anything other than a true miracle. But to accept it as such will bolster our faith. As St. Paul wrote in the epistle to the Romans, "Just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life." This Easter, may we experience the great joy of new life in the risen Christ.

The Dumb Ox Brown Bag Lunch Series

The Brown Bag Lunch Series continues this Monday, March 28, at noon in the basement. Even if you missed last week's session, please join us for this series on St Thomas Aquinas, one of the outstanding Catholic thinkers, who was taunted by his classmates as being a "dumb ox."

March 28: Aquinas the Philosopher

April 4: Aquinas the Theologian

April 18: Aquinas the Mystic

This is a noon time brown bag series for students and parishioners, so bring your lunch and share in the learning of this saint's life and times. We will begin shortly after noon to allow for arrivals from classes and end just before 1:00. Water and tea will be provided, so come and be fed in mind and body. This series is open to all.

Choir Rehearsal

Choir rehearsal for the weekend Masses is held on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in the Music Room.

Symbolon Video Series: Living the Faith

This video study by Dr. Edward Sri will continue this Tuesday, March 29, at 7:00 p.m. in Meeting Room #1. This week's session will be on God's plan for sexuality. Please contact Nate Hoffman at nhoffman@stisidores.com for more information.

Women's Group—"It's Nothing Personal"

"It's Nothing Personal" is a series of homilies and corresponding study aids done by Fr. Mike Schmitz; the core theme each week is centered on prayer and striving for a true, personal relationship with Christ. Come Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Isidore's basement to read related Bible passages, listen to Fr. Mike's brief presentation, and have meaningful discussions in order to grow in a deeper love for Christ. If you aren't able to come each week, that is definitely okay; feel free to join us at any time! I hope to see you there! If you have any questions, contact Michaela at mgleason@stisidores.com.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

If you are interested in the Prayer Shawl Ministry, or you know someone who would appreciate receiving a prayer shawl, please contact Judy Hedman at 785-341-8615 for more information. This ministry meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the Upper Room.

Eucharistic Adoration

We have adoration for 24 hours every Wednesday after 9:30 p.m. Mass until Thursday before evening Mass in the Side Chapel. Join us!

Source & Summit

Join us this Thursday, March 31, at 8:00 p.m. for a night of adoration, praise and worship and a dynamic speaker! This month we will be welcoming Fr. Jarett Konrade, pastor at St. Nicholas of Myra in Hays. Due to Mass at 9:30 p.m., we will try to begin as close to 8:00 as possible, so please be on time! See you there!

Ultimate Frisbee

Join us this Friday, April 1, for a game of Ultimate Frisbee! All skill levels are welcome. We'll meet in the St. Isidore's lobby at 6:00 p.m. and then walk over to the Old Stadium to play. Bring a friend or two!

As you know, this is the 800th anniversary of the Dominican Order. These bulletin inserts help us to better know the legacy of St. Dominic. God bless, Fr. Mike & Fr. Bob

Dominican Sisters International

What does it mean to be a member of a family? I offer one of my most poignant experiences of kinship. It is a letter I received as International Coordinator of Dominican Sisters International (DSI), on September 14, 2001 written by Sister Marie Thérèse Hanna, Prioress of the Dominican Sisters in Mosul, Iraq. She writes: "It is with sadness that we heard of the disaster that happened in America on Tuesday, the 11th of September. Having experienced such devastating attacks ourselves, we can imagine how difficult it has been for you. Please accept our solidarity and our sympathy on the loss of so many innocent people."

DSI was formally launched in 1995, only six years earlier, largely from the painful shock of our awareness that these Iraqi Dominican Sisters had been virtually alone during the war in their country in the early 90s. Now these same Sisters were reaching out to us in solidarity and prayer. In a remarkable way it can be said of all members of the Dominican family, and most especially of apostolic Dominican Sisters, that it was in the 20th century that we came to realize our full kinship in that Family. Moreover, it has been in and through our Dominican family that we continue to make our most significant contributions to preaching and social justice in the 21st century. Today DSI numbers 24,600 Dominican sisters in 151 congregations working in 110 countries.
