The Ascension of the Lord

Readings:

Acts 1:1-11

Ps 47:2-3, 6-9

Heb 9:24-28; 10:19-23

Lk 24:46-53

"They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy." Jesus had just left the disciples. In a dramatic and supernatural moment, he had bid them farewell and then "was taken up to heaven." One might think this departure would have left the disciples feeling very melancholy, but apparently it was not so. They were full of joy as they went back to the city where Jesus had told them to stay, "until you are clothed with power from on high." This, of course, is a reference to the coming of the Holy Spirit that would happen soon enough at Pentecost. But the disciples did not know the details. They only knew that Jesus was promising them the "Advocate" and some amazing power from heaven, and sending them off with a great mission to preach "repentance, for the forgiveness of sins... to all the nations." And this filled them with joy, even while they waited.

What we often need to remind ourselves is that after the Ascension, the disciples were in a very similar position to us. They were no longer in the physical presence of Jesus. They no longer walked with him, watched him, or heard his voice. Now, carrying on the work of the Gospel was up to them. And so too, now it is up to us. The mission of preaching the good news to all the nations is our mission. And, thankfully, the powerful "clothing" from on high is ours as well. So, like the disciples we have cause for rejoicing. Jesus reigns in heaven. His Spirit has come upon us. And we are entrusted with the most noble and rewarding task of all, to share our faith with others and bring them to experience the joys of belonging to the kingdom of God.

Farewell to Students

It is hard to believe that the school year is coming to an end. Fr. Bob and I recalled the first few months here and the many challenges, the unknowns, the new people, changes made from our previous situations, getting used to new people, learning new names, new faces, new places, understanding one another, and people assuming, or presuming, or consuming us. And it suddenly occurred to me, we were freshmen! Now that time has passed, and this first year is finally drawing to a close, we, like all freshmen, look forward to the next go round. Our graduating students will very likely find that next year too is a bit of a freshman year, but the cycle of new beginnings is always worth the struggles, the so called "bumps in the road."

But for now, these few weeks ahead are a time to take leave, to wish one another well and to cherish all that has been and look forward to all that might yet be. For most of our students, the summer months will be a time to slow down a little, to experience new phases of the adult journey, to deepen friendships at a distance or to re-discover old ones we had forgotten about right at home. Regardless of where the summer finds us, let us hold one another in prayer, encourage those who are near us, and allow God's generous grace to call forth the best of whom we are each meant to be. One great philosopher, Winnie the Pooh said, "How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard." So, good byes aren't such a bad thing.

The staff, Fr Bob and I will miss all of you and wish you well on your summer's journey. For you who will be returning in the Fall, we look forward to seeing you; and to those who venture out to new lives, know that you always are welcome at St. Isidore's Catholic Student Center. "May the Lord bless you and keep you; may the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you; may the Lord look upon you kindly, and give you peace" Numbers 6:24-26.

Fr. Mike

Can you Help?

Next Sunday, May 15, we will have our four Dominican novices and novice master stopping by for Mass and staying the night. We have limited space so if any of you have room to take in one or two of the novices overnight, that would be a big help. The next day they'll drive to see the Dominican Sisters in Great Bend, then on to the novitiate in Denver. They are great guys, and it's a wonderful way for you to get to know receive Dominicans, and for them to get to know what super parishioners we have here! ► If you can help, please let me know at frmike@stisidores.com.

Also, one of our student brothers will visit May 19-20. He is a Kansan from KC and will be on his home visit. FYI, about eight years ago St. Isidore's inspired one of its alum to join the province, Fr Cassian Sama, who is now parochial vicar at Purdue's Newman Center.

I hope you enjoy meeting the Dominicans this month!

- Fr. Mike

Please consider participating in this effort since the revenue from the ads is what makes the website possible at no cost to St. Isidore's. It is a great way to make your name visible to the community. Advertisements may be purchased for a business, family memorial, or you can sponsor an ad supporting Catholic Charities, Knights of Columbus, Vocations, etc. Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help! If you are interested or just curious as to prices and want more information, please contact 785-370-4834 or Sponsorship@SolutioSoftware.com.

RCIA will be starting in September, so if you are interested or know of someone who might be, please email stisidores@stisidores.com or call 785-539-7496 to sign up.
