Readings:

2 Kgs 5:14-17
Ps 98:1-4
2 Tm 2:8-13
Lk 17:11-19

"Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine?" Jesus had worked a miracle of healing for ten people afflicted with leprosy. They had cried out for him to have pity on them, and he did. But only one member of this group took the time to return to Jesus, fall at his feet, and thank him. Why?

Perhaps some were so busy rejoicing that they forgot to give thanks. Perhaps others thought they deserved to be healed and thus did not think in terms of gratitude for the miracle. Maybe some in the group weren't sure that the healing was going to last. Or, possibly, some of them were just selfish and lazy. Whatever the case, Jesus affirms the one man who does the right thing: "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." Jesus thus establishes this Samaritan man as our example. We too are to glorify "God in a loud voice" for all that he has done for us.

So, what exactly has God done for us? What are the miracles in our lives that we have failed to notice, to believe, or to appreciate? Undoubtedly the answers will be different for everyone, with one main exception: we are all called to give thanks for the gift of life, of course. This is the first miracle God worked on our behalf! Bringing us into existence to live and love is a gift we might tend to take for granted. But surely, we can be thankful for more.

We would all do well to reflect on the multitude of God's gifts in our lives. Sometimes we have to pause long enough to think and recognize those things we should be grateful for. But a little effort in this regard is well worth it to avoid being like the ungrateful lepers. Instead, may we be the ones who give thanks where thanks is due.

Justice for the most Vulnerable

The Kansas Supreme Court will soon decide whether the brutal practice of dismemberment abortion will continue in Kansas. Last year in Kansas, 629 babies died by violent, painful dismemberment abortions. The practice of dismemberment abortion is barbaric and is happening right here in our Kansas communities—and Kansas judges have ruled it is not only legal, but a legal right. The Kansas Legislature banned it in the spring of 2015; but the Kansas district and appeals courts have prevented the dismemberment abortion ban from going into effect, ruling that the Kansas Constitution protects abortion but not unborn human beings. WHAT HAPPENS NEXT? The lower court rulings will now be reviewed by the Kansas Supreme Court. The fate of the dismemberment abortion law, and potentially all other existing protections for the unborn, is in the hands of the seven justices of the Kansas Supreme Court. Hurricane Matthew Catholic Relief Services has begun a fast response to the damage caused by Hurricane Matthew. Even before the storm hit, CRS staff were dispatched to the CRS offices in Les Cayes, Jeremie and Jacmel—cities in southwest Haiti directly in the hurricane's path. As always, CRS stands ready to respond with the local Catholic Church and other partners to the people in greatest need. CRS has set up a Hurricane Matthew webpage that can be found on their main site, or you can access it directly at <http://www.crs.org/resource-center/church-responds-hurricane-matthew>. This site informs communities on how we can respond with prayer, learning, action, and donations for those impacted by the storm, and to help alleviate the suffering of people who need our help and prayers.

Permanent Community:

The Pathways Retreat is still accepting donations of the following food items for the retreat on Oct. 14-16:

Chocolate chips	Cocoa powder	Vanilla extract	Cooking spray
Self-rising flour	Olive oil	Ranch seasoning packets	Tortilla chips
