Being Good Stewards

Dear Friends,

When I was a boy in Catholic grade school, I recall receiving my very own box of envelopes for the Sunday collection. My father told me this is how we give to God a little of what He has given to us. This is still true and it is in the offerings, our Sunday collection, that a simple act of giving has an impact on us as individuals. Charity changes us for the better.

Every parish relies on the good will of its parishioners, and we are grateful to all who support the works being done here at St. Isidore's. As a way of letting the parish see how we are doing, so as to have a better sense of your generous support, we will be including a monthly statement in the bulletin, which you will find in this week's bulletin. Our being good stewards is a call for all of us, our regular community as well as our student community and visitors.

I said to the college students at the start of the semester to think of the Sunday collection as BJAB, Buying Jesus A Beverage (or maybe I said a beer?). As you can see, we need the support of everyone giving a bit, as well as those who give most generously, "giving to God a little of what He has given to us." We have many wonderful ministries and services here at St. Isidore's, but they also involve costs, so your support is critical and always enormously appreciated.

May God bless you for your kindness,

Fr. Michael

A Big Thank You to all permanent community members in attendance at our annual Oktoberfest. With over 80 people coming and going throughout the night, it was a great opportunity to enjoy good food and meet other permanent community members. We look forward to seeing each of you at Mass and at other events here at St. Isidore's!

Thank you also to our hosts who paid for the food: Kevin & Liz Bahner, Weylan & Jamie Bosse, Andy & Kim Fund, Geneva Jahnke, John & Kristi Liebe, Richard & Trish Ott, and Verl & Betty Stevens.

Hurricane Matthew

Catholic Relief Services has begun a fast response to the damage caused by Hurricane Matthew. Even before the storm hit, CRS staff were dispatched to the CRS offices in Les Cayes, Jeremie and Jacmel—cities in southwest Haiti directly in the hurricane's path. As always, CRS stands ready to respond with the local Catholic Church and other partners to the people in greatest need. CRS has set up a Hurricane Matthew webpage that can be found on their main site, or you can access it directly at <http://www.crs.org/resource-center/church-responds-hurricane-matthew>. This site informs communities on how we can respond with prayer, learning, action, and donations for those impacted by the storm, and to help alleviate the suffering of people who need our help and prayers.
