Readings:

Sir 35:12-14, 16-18
Ps 34:2-3, 17-19, 23
2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18
Lk 18:9-14

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

The Pharisee and the tax collector—polar opposites by practice. The one is a religious leader, a professional follower-of-the-law. The other is a deviant who extorts money for himself as he goes about his economic business. But in today's parable, Jesus flips these perceptions around. The humble tax collector is the one who "went home justified." Whereas the Pharisee has a flawless outer appearance, when we see a glimpse into his inner thoughts we detect his vanity and presumption. We see a man who may keep the letter of the law, but who is not truly converted to God's ways in his heart. The tax collector, on the other hand, pleads for God's mercy, recognizing that he needs it.

So, which one are we? Honestly, most of us are probably a combination of these two character types. Most of us follow God's laws some of the time, and fail to do so at other times. But the important point is to honestly acknowledge when we do fail, and to ask God to have mercy upon us. If we think we have nothing about which to plead for mercy, chances are we are living in a kind of self-imposed blindness like the Pharisee. When we won't admit we need help, it's hard to get the help we need! Instead, we should humble ourselves by honestly examining our conscience (regularly!) and seeking God's forgiveness, particularly through reconciliation, the great sacrament of divine mercy.

As hard as it may be for some of us to confess our sins to a priest, this humble act of acknowledging our failings prepares us to be "justified" like the tax collector who cried out, "Be merciful to me a sinner!"

During the month of November, we traditionally remember and pray for those who have died. Here at St. Isidore's, we do this in a special way with our Book of Remembrance.

If you have deceased family members and friends that you would like our St. Isidore's community to pray for, please pick up a remembrance sheet from the table in the lobby. Complete the form, and return it to the office or place it in the collection basket at a weekend Mass. Our book will have a prominent place in the Chapel during the entire month as a reminder of those whose lives have touched ours and have now "gone before us, marked with the sign of faith."

Inspirational Addition to Side Chapel

If you've not been in the Side Chapel recently, please check out the canvas panels depicting the four Gospel writers. The panels are modeled after St. Isidore's stained glass windows. A huge thank you to Ralph Diaz, permanent community member, who painted these beautiful panels.

Student volunteers are asked to arrive early at 12:00 for instructions and to help with the preparations. Please contact Robbie at 785-539-7496 or rjennings@stisidores.com with any questions.

- ► If you know any senior citizens who would like to attend the dinner, please invite them to RSVP by calling the office at 539-7496 by Nov. 9.

If you would like to help cover the cost of a subscription for a family who cannot afford a donation, please add an additional $15 to your donation. Your Nov. 11 issue will include a donation envelope, or you may mail your donation check to The Register, P.O. Box 1038, Salina, KS 67402, or contribute online at salinadiocese.org/the-register.
