November Remembrance

For the Church, the month of November has always been set aside as a time to remember with special reverence and prayer those who have gone before us in faith. We begin this memorial period with the Feast of All Saints (see Mass schedule in bulletin) on November 1st and All Souls on November 2nd.

This All Souls Day, I would like to invite you to consider a special way to remember those countless souls who stand before the throne of Mercy by spending time in adoration. As you may know, from Wednesday night (about 10:00) through Thursday night (about 9:15), the Blessed Sacrament is in the side chapel for adoration. Students sign up for the hours through the night and during the day. I would like to encourage you to spend an hour in prayer, meditation, reflection before the Blessed Sacrament in adoration as a way to offer our prayers for all our dear departed. In addition, the Church has always encouraged the practice of suffrages for the deceased, our having a Mass said for our loved ones. If you would like information on this, please contact Mary Lou in the office.

Fr. Michael

Eucharistic Adoration

Every Wednesday after 9:30 p.m. Mass, Eucharistic Adoration takes place in the Side Chapel for 24 hours, ending before evening Mass on Thursday.

During the month of November, we traditionally remember and pray for those who have died. Here at St. Isidore's, we do this in a special way with our Book of Remembrance.

If you have deceased family members and friends that you would like our St. Isidore's community to pray for, please pick up a remembrance sheet from the table in the lobby. Complete the form, and return it to the office or place it in the collection basket at a weekend Mass. Our book will have a prominent place in the Chapel during the entire month as a reminder of those whose lives have touched ours and have now "gone before us, marked with the sign of faith."

► Please Note: There will be no Praise & Worship or Social Justice Class this Thursday. They will resume at the regularly scheduled times next week.

Source & Summit

Are you ready to meet other students while learning about and expressing your love for Christ? Join us this Thursday, Nov. 3, at 8:00 p.m. in the Chapel for the November Source & Summit.
