33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Mal 3:19-20a
Ps 98:5-9
2 Thes 3:7-12
Lk 21:5-19

"You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name." This is not a pleasant prophecy. On the contrary, Jesus' somber words may strike us with a bit of fear and make us wonder if we will ever actually face such a tragic scenario. We are fortunate to live in a country where religious freedom is tolerated, and of course we hope that this continues to be the case. But the sad fact is that right now, there are Christians in other parts of the world who are living out the reality of these prophetic words. For these men, women, and children of faith, the name of Jesus truly is a cause of persecution and martyrdom.

Let us imagine for a moment that the tables were turned. Suppose we were the ones suffering from the violent advances of anti-Christian forces. Suppose we were the ones losing our homes, fleeing for our lives, tending to our wounded loved ones, or worse. Where would we look for help? To other Christians, most likely, to those who would sympathize with our commitments but who still had

We are those other Christians. We are the ones who share a common faith with these suffering brothers and sisters on the other side of the globe. We are the ones with the resources to help them, even if it is just in a small way. Our prayers for their protection and peace cannot be underestimated, but neither can we dismiss the significance of contributing in any way possible to those organizations that are working on the front lines to assist the suffering Church throughout the world. May we all do what we can to bring relief to those who need it most.

Thanksgiving Dinner for Senior Citizens

Our annual Thanksgiving Dinner for Senior Citizens is this afternoon, Sunday, Nov. 13, at 1:00 in Newman Hall.

- If you signed up to serve meals and socialize with the senior citizens, please arrive early at 12:00 p.m. to help with preparations.
- If you volunteered to bring a salad or dessert, please bring your item to Newman Hall by 12:15 p.m.

Thank you for your help!

Annual Seminarian Appeal

This weekend we are participating in a special diocesan collection for our seminarians. Please keep them in prayer and consider supporting them financially. We will be taking up a second collection this weekend at all Masses for this appeal.

► Along with the collection to financially support our seminarians, the Diocese is asking that permanent community members complete a note card, which can be found in the pews, providing names of young men who you believe would be good candidates for the seminary. You can bring the completed note card by the office this week, or drop it in the collection basket next weekend at any of the Masses. The information on the cards will be sent to our Vocations Office, so the Bishop can contact the individuals about a potential vocation to the priesthood. Your help in surfacing potential vocations is greatly appreciated.

This campaign gives us an opportunity to exercise our faith and offer hope to others. If you would like to donate, place your contribution in an envelope marked "Campaign for Human Development" and drop it in the collection next weekend. Permanent community members on the envelope program, please use the envelope in your packet.
