Adeste fideles.

This ancient hymn, "Oh Come all ye Faithful," has echoed Christmas after Christmas in its summons to gather round the Christ child. After a year of contentious politics, unsettling violence in the Middle East and in our streets, one might ask why we have grown so deaf to this call. Let us pray that we again hear what the shepherds heard, tidings of great joy. In these days of Christmas may peace reign on earth, and may you and your families know the ancient blessing of the babe born to save us.

From all of us, the priests and staff, we wish you a very joyous Christmas and every good blessing in the New Year!

Please Note:

The St. Isidore's offices will be closed Monday, Dec. 26. There will be no daily Mass this week and no confessions on Friday.
