A Welcome Back Gift for Students

As we just celebrated Christmas, the Incarnation of the Word Made Flesh, we know that we meet God in our relationships and in our communities. Keeping our life in Christ alive requires personal time for prayer and time for sharing with one another about who Christ is. At the doors after Mass, you will find tables with a welcome back gift for all of our students with daily meditations and the Sunday missal. We will be getting "The Word Among Us" monthly for the semester, and it is a great way to keep your faith fresh and to share it with others. There are also Spanish editions for our students who are spiritually at home in the idiom of their home tongue.

Choir Rehearsal

Tuesday and Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. in the Music Room.

Knights of Columbus Meeting

The St. Isidore's Knights will meet on Saturday, Jan. 21, at 6:00 p.m. in the basement.

Welcome Bishop Kemme

Next Sunday, Jan. 22, Bishop Kemme from the Diocese of Wichita will preside at the 4:30 Mass. We encourage as many students from his diocese to attend that Mass. Afterwards there will be a reception for students to meet Bishop Kemme and for him to get to know all of our students. This is a special event and we are grateful for Bishop Kemme making the time in his schedule to be with us. On Sunday, Jan. 29, Archbishop Naumann from the Kansas City Diocese will be with us. Mark your calendars!
