Readings:

Ez 33:7-9
Ps 95:1-2, 6-9
Rom 13:8-10
Mt 18:15-20

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." This is a fascinating promise. Jesus enlightens us today about the power of communal faith. He emphasizes that a gathering of like-minded believers, small though it may be, has a powerful effect. As he tells his disciples, "If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father."

Alright then, what are we waiting for? We should take Jesus up on this amazing offer! Going to Mass is one way to do so. When we gather together every Sunday, we do more than listen to readings and receive the Eucharist. We also pray together. The priest leads us in these prayers, of course, but we are meant to join with him, as the Second Vatican Council put it, with "fully conscious, and active participation" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, #14). We are to make the prayers our own by attentively joining in with them from our hearts. Mindlessly reciting "Amen" or absently whispering the words of the Our Father likely loses the effect Jesus was talking about in today's Gospel. But truly praying together with our parish community certainly fits the bill.

We need not be at church to fulfill this kind of prayer, however. It only takes two! Those of us who live with others can exercise communal prayer every day in our own homes, just by joining each other for a few moments of petition or praise. Those who live alone may need to reach out more deliberately, but it only takes a phone call to "gather together" with another believer and offer up our prayers. May we have the courage to invite others to join us as we bring our needs to God.

Emergency Collection for Hurricane Victims

All of us have been following the historic flooding in southeast Texas. Hurricane Harvey has created an unprecedented and catastrophic weather event. Our hearts and prayers go out to the families that have lost loved ones and to all who have lost homes or businesses, along with their sense of peace and normalcy.

This weekend, Sept. 9-10, all parishes of the Salina Diocese are participating in a National Collection for hurricane victims. The funds collected will be used both to support the humanitarian and recovery efforts of Catholic Charities USA and to provide pastoral and rebuilding support to impacted dioceses through the USCCB. Thank you for your generosity and support!

Pancake Breakfast Today

After the 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Masses this morning, Sunday, Sept. 10, the St. Isidore's Knights will host a pancake breakfast in Newman Hall. The menu will include pancakes, sausage, biscuits and gravy, orange juice and coffee, all for a free-will donation, the proceeds of which will benefit our seminarians. Bring your appetite and support the Knights!

Spring Break Mission Trip

Are you ready and willing to serve? Join us for our annual Spring Break Mission Trip! It's a great opportunity to travel, serve those in need, grow in faith, and get to know a great group of Catholic K-Staters! This year we are offering two international trips and one local trip. If interested, please attend the information meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 5:30 p.m. in Meeting Room #1.

Social Justice Opportunities

Hospital Ministry: A couple of spots have opened up on our Hospital Ministry Team. If your class schedule allows, please consider volunteering to bring communion to patients and providing comfort, support and prayer, either on a regular basis or as a sub. If you are interested for this semester, please contact Robbie at rjennings@stisidores.com.

Nursing Home Ministry: Are you interested in volunteering some of your time to visit elderly residents of local nursing homes? We are still looking for a few more volunteers to help with Monday Bible Reflections from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. and a few more people on Tuesdays from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. to visit with the residents of Stonybrook. If interested, contact Robbie at rjennings@stisidores.com.

STIR-St. Isidore's Retreat Team

Attention! We are in need of at least 15 more students to join the St. Isidore's Retreat Team! (One of the scheduled retreats will have 100 young people attending!) Is God calling you to share your faith with teenagers? Consider joining the St. Isidore's Retreat Team! Inspired by the verse from 2 Timothy: "Stir into flame the gift of God that you have," we put on retreats for area youth groups, middle schools, and high schools. As a member of the Retreat Team, you will prepare a talk centered on an aspect of your faith and help plan activities prior to retreats, then facilitate activities, lead small groups, and give your talk during the retreats. If you are interested, please contact Robbie Jennings at rjennings@stisidores.com.

Website Sponsorships Available

In the weeks ahead, a representative from Solutio, Inc., will be setting up the advertising for St. Isidore's website for the year.

Please consider participating in this effort since the revenue from the ads is what makes the website possible at no cost to the Center. It's a great way to get your name out there. Advertisements may be purchased for a business, family memorial, or you can sponsor an ad supporting Catholic Charities, Knights of Columbus, Vocations, etc. Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help! If you are interested or want more information, contact 785-328-0259 or Sponsorship@SolutioSoftware.com.
