Readings:

Sir 27:30—28:7

Ps 103:1-4, 9-12

Rom 14:7-9

Mt 18:21-35

"I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?" The parable Jesus tells today is the story of a king, but in truth it is about Jesus himself. He is the "king" who has forgiven our debts. We are the "servants" whose sins have earned us chastisement. But when we repent and ask for Christ's mercy, he grants it to us without hesitation.

The point of the parable, then, is that we too should extend this mercy to others. We should not be like that "wicked servant" who begged for mercy but would not show it to others. Elsewhere, Jesus teaches us to pray, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors" (Mt. 6:12). We use different words, but a similar meaning when we pray the Our Father asking God to "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." But are we sure that we mean what we say?

It's important to pause and evaluate how we are doing in this regard. Are we harboring any grudges? Are there people we refuse to forgive? Is there a situation where we are seeking revenge instead of extending mercy? Jesus asks us to do otherwise. He reminds us that we have already been forgiven. We are right now enjoying the benefits of his forgiveness. So we are called to bear in mind our own sins, failings, weaknesses, and "debts" when we deal with others instead of thinking that we are perfectly innocent and acting as if we've never been the beneficiary of mercy. So let us do our best to forgive as we have been forgiven. This doesn't mean approving of wrong behavior; God doesn't ask us to do that. But he does ask us to let go of bitterness and foster mercy instead.

► Father Gale and Father Ryan will be attending the Priests' Convocation in Kansas City this week. Please keep them in your prayers as they spend time with their brother priests. We will have daily Mass on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 9:30 p.m.; and on Friday at 12:10 p.m. There will be no Mass here on Thursday. Confessions will be heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.; no confessions on Friday.

Dollar Dinners

Students: How about a Sunday dinner on a college budget? St. Isidore's permanent community is providing a dinner for students for only $1 on Sunday evenings! Join us tonight, Sunday, Sept. 17, at 6:30 p.m. in Newman Hall.

Daily Holy Hour

On weekdays from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., the FOCUS missionaries, Fr. Gale and Fr. Ryan will be praying in adoration in the Chapel. All are welcome!

Prayer Shawl

Come join our Shawl Ministry group; it is open to students as well as permanent community. Epic: A Journey Through Church History

Interested in learning more about the history of the Church, but don't know where to start? Join us for Epic! This program takes the immense history of the Church and simplifies it into color-coded time periods. Over the course of twenty sessions, participants learn about the major people, places, and events that comprise the story of Christianity.

Join us for one, two, or all three courses listed below! During the fall and spring semesters, we'll meet Mondays at 7:00 p.m. The cost of the study materials (20-session workbook, color-coded chart, and bookmark) is $20. To sign up, or for more information, please contact Maria at 785-539-7496 or mleiker@stisidores.com.

- ◆ Fall (Oct. 2-Nov. 13): Learn about the Crusades, the Great Schism, the Protestant Reformation, and other events occurring between 1000 and 1544 AD.
- ◆ Spring (Feb. 5-Mar. 12): Explore topics from 1545 AD to present, including the Catholic Reformation, impact of revolutions and wars, Vatican I & II, and more.
- ◆ Summer: Study the Early Church (33-999 AD): Apostles, persecution, and the earliest Church councils.

Boot Scootin' Barn Bash

Grab your friends or a date and meet us at St. Isidore's at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 13, to carpool out to the barn for a night of dancing, snacks, drinks and friendship. Don't forget to wear your boots! No tickets or RSVP required! Just come and go as you please (8:00 to 11:00 p.m.). Check out our social media to order t-shirts for the event. More details to come! EVERYONE IS INVITED!
