Readings:

Is 5:1-7
Ps 80:9, 12-16, 19-20
Phil 4:6-9
Mt 21:33-43

"Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit." The chief priests and elders listening to Jesus must have been furious. After telling the parable about the tenants who abused the owner's property and killed his son, Jesus had a tough lesson to teach. He compared the Jewish leaders to these terrible tenants. They, like the selfish workers in the vineyard, were guilty of not respecting proper authority and of trying to seize control—not of grapes, in this case, but of religious matters. In short, they were not bearing fruit for God's kingdom, but only for their own prestige and privilege.

Before we spend too much time criticizing them, however, we would do well to examine ourselves. If Jesus were standing in our midst right now, would he have a similar warning for us? We may not be religious leaders, but we are like those tenants in many ways because we have been made stewards of the gifts of God. We receive his help and grace through the sacraments, for example. Are we good stewards of this grace, or do we take it for granted and fail to nourish it to produce good fruit?

And what about the personal gifts that God has entrusted to each of us? We all have certain skills, talents, experiences, and opportunities thanks to God's work in our lives. Do we make the most of these things or do we settle for the easy road? Do we thank God for them or consider them to be our own?

God has trusted us with a place in the world, his world. He is the ultimate authority here and all things we enjoy come from his hands. May we have the humility and gratitude to use his gifts for his glory and not just our own.

October Collection for Hurricane Irma

My dear brothers and sisters, you already have responded with exceptional generosity for the local victims of the hail storm that hit WaKeeney, as well as the terrible devastation that followed from Hurricane Harvey in Texas. At the same time, I'm sure we have all been moved by the catastrophic damage that resulted from Hurricane Irma which hit the Caribbean and the southeastern United States. Hurricane Irma has been devastating, especially to many in parts of Florida and St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands. Our brothers and sisters greatly need our help.

All dioceses in the U.S. will take up a collection for Hurricane Irma relief this weekend, Oct. 7-8. The funds collected will be used in the affected areas to support humanitarian aid, assistance with long-term efforts to restore communities after widespread destruction, and for the pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church in these areas.

This collection comes on the heels of the prior two emergency collections. Please know that your sacrificial gift will be a blessing for those who are greatly in need.

*May God bless you abundantly,
Bishop Edward J. Weisenburger*
