Ps 23:1-6
Phil 4:12-14, 19-20
Mt 22:1-14

"My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?" Today's Gospel parable is unsettling in several ways. The various images of rejection, mistreatment, and violence paint an unpleasant picture. Guests refuse to come to a feast, servants are killed, troops are dispatched. The King continues to try to fill his dinner hall, and then when someone finally does show up, the King throws him out for wearing the wrong clothes. What is going on here?

The message would have been a poignant one for his Jewish listeners. As the chosen people, they were the first to receive the "invitation" to share in the kingdom of God. But the chief priests and elders were uninterested in accepting Jesus and his authority; thus they didn't show up for the feast. But what about those who did come? Something is expected of them as well. Donning a "wedding garment" is like being properly prepared to enter God's kingdom. Just showing up isn't enough.

Here it's important to pay attention to the details. The King first calls his poorly dressed guest "friend." The approach begins with mercy and kindness. But the man gives no defense for himself, and displays no desire to change. It's as if he doesn't really care to be there at all.

The question this raises for us is whether or not we are "dressed" appropriately. We may hang around the banquet hall—going to church, professing to be Christian—but are we sincere guests of the King of kings? Do we truly accept Christ's teachings and live by them, or are we just showing up? The splendors of the invitation Christ gives us should not be taken for granted. We are called to share in a royal feast. May we all be grateful guests.

Some of the items that the Breadbasket is needing are cake and muffin mixes, crackers, peanut butter, jelly, granola bars, oatmeal and microwavable macaroni and cheese mixes; however any type of food donation like canned foods is appreciated. If you would like to donate to this special collection, place your contribution in an envelope marked World Missions and place it in the collection next weekend. Permanent community on the envelope program, please use the envelope in your packet. Thank you!

We have added some perishable food items to the Pathways “Giving Tree.” This will be a big help in offsetting the cost of the retreat, which takes place Oct. 27-29. If you’d like to help

- ◆ Visit our “Giving Tree” in the St. Isidore’s lobby.
- ◆ Pick any items you’d like to donate from the tree.
- ◆ After you purchase the items, please place any perishable items in the bin labeled “Pathways” in the Newman Hall refrigerator (or drop off at the main office during business hours). Any non-perishable items can go in the designated boxes under the tree.

We ask that all donations arrive no later than Monday, Oct. 23. Thank you so much for your generosity!
