Readings:

Is 45:1, 4-6
Ps 96:1, 3-5, 7-10
1 Thes 1:1-5b
Mt 22:15-21

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."
The Pharisees, full of malice, were trying to "entrap Jesus in speech." They concocted a question that flattered him, saying, "You teach the way of God in accordance with the truth," but which also put him in a position to be in big trouble if he challenged the Roman laws. Jesus, of course, escaped the trap with his brilliant reply. We can appreciate the wisdom of his response, but more importantly, we can appreciate what it means for us.

To repay to Caesar, in this case, meant to give appropriate allegiance to the secular authorities. We too are under such authority, and although Uncle Sam is different than Caesar in countless ways, the fact remains that as constituents of this country who enjoy its many benefits, we are also called to extend a certain kind of tribute to our government. Taxes, yes, but more than that too. The loyalty and patriotism that offers our gifts in service to the good of our nation is also a tribute we Christians should make in good faith. Only when a law of our land contradicts the moral principles of God do we have to follow our primary allegiance instead, namely, our allegiance to Christ. Unfortunately, in our day we live under certain national laws that do conflict with the truth about human dignity, and thus a tension exists for us. But the course is clear. We must repay "to God what belongs to God" by defending the truth even when it may be unpopular. This kind of courage is what built the Church in those early centuries of persecution when practicing our faith was against the law. Heaven forbid this should ever happen to us. But if it does, we know what must be done.

During the month of November, we traditionally remember and pray for those who have died. Here at St. Isidore's, we do this in a special way with our Book of Remembrance.

If you have deceased family members and friends that you would like our St. Isidore's community to pray for, please pick up a remembrance sheet from the table in the lobby. Complete the form, and return it to the office or place it in the collection basket at a weekend Mass. Our book will have a prominent place in the Chapel during the entire month as a reminder of those whose lives have touched ours and have now "gone before us, marked with the sign of faith."

Novena for Victims of Natural Disasters (to be prayed Oct. 21-29)

Lord God, we pray for those who have been devastated by recent natural disasters, especially the people of Puerto Rico, many of whom have lost everything and are now refugees from home. We remember those who have lost their lives so suddenly, and hold in our hearts the families forever changed by grief and loss. Bring them consolation and comfort. Surround them with our prayer for strength and inspire us to perfect unity with them as our brothers and sisters. Bless those who have survived and grant them the strength and courage to face the long road of rebuilding their lives.

We ask too that you bless the work of relief agencies and those providing emergency assistance. May their efforts be guided by the grace and strength that comes from You alone. Help us to respond with generosity in prayer, in assistance, and in aid, to the best of our abilities. And keep our hearts focused on the needs of those affected, even after the crisis is over. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.
