October 29, 2017 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

- Ex 22:20-26
- Ps 18:2-4, 47, 51
- 1 Thes 1:5c-10
- Mt 22:34-40

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." Jesus gives us a simple moral principle in today's Gospel. He speaks about two kinds of love: love of God and love of neighbor. He tells us that all the other laws and teachings of our faith fall under these two headings. So if we can master these, we will be in good spiritual shape!

First of all, regarding the love of God, Jesus tells us in essence that we must love God completely and entirely, with our whole being—heart, soul, and mind. If we are holding back from a full commitment to God, then we are falling short of this vision. So we would do well to examine ourselves and find those trouble spots where we are hesitant to give God everything. Is there a relationship we hold in our heart that is somehow separating us from God, either by negative association, lingering bitterness, or a kind of idol-worship of the relationship itself? What about our souls? Are we deeply attached to any pastimes, pleasures, or pursuits that cloud our soul from clearly welcoming the presence of God? An examination of our minds is in order as well. How do we direct our thoughts? Do we strive to form our conscience and understanding in the truth, or do we passively allow public opinion or popular consensus to direct our conclusions about the Church, the world, and our own identity?

It follows that the closer we come to loving God with our whole being, the better we will be at loving our neighbors. The more we are filled with God's love, the more that love radiates out to those around us, and the less we concern ourselves about what we can get out of the deal. So let us truly love God, and all the rest will follow.

Feast of All Saints—Wednesday, Nov. 1

This Wednesday, Nov. 1, is All Saints Day, a holy day of obligation. We will have Mass on Tuesday evening at 5:30 p.m.; and on Wednesday at 12:10 p.m., 5:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. (There will be no 9:30 p.m. Mass on Tuesday). ► Our offices will be closed on Wednesday in observance of this holy day.

During the month of November, we traditionally remember and pray for those who have died. Here at St. Isidore's, we do this in a special way with our Book of Remembrance.

If you have deceased family members and friends that you would like our St. Isidore's community to pray for, please pick up a remembrance sheet from the table in the lobby. Complete the form, and return it to the office or place it in the book in the Chapel. Our book will have a prominent place in the Chapel during the entire month as a reminder of those whose lives have touched ours and have now "gone before us, marked with the sign of faith."

Praise & Worship

Due to Source & Summit this Thursday, we will not have Praise & Worship this week. It will resume next Thursday, Nov. 9, at 8:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

Source & Summit

Are you ready to meet other students while learning about and expressing your love for Christ? Join us this Thursday, Nov. 2, at 8:00 p.m. in the Chapel to hear David Dreiling, permanent community member and Kansas State Newman Foundation Board member, share the ways in which Christ has worked in his life in the most unexpected ways. Source & Summit also includes Praise & Worship, adoration and social time.

► Please Note: On Source & Summit Thursdays, Mass will be celebrated at 5:30 p.m. instead of 9:30 p.m.
