"For they preach but they do not practice." The scribes and Pharisees may be the ones Jesus was speaking about in today's Gospel, but we must be careful not to dismiss his words when it comes to our own actions. Jesus offered a difficult challenge to those honor-seekers that we must also heed when he said, "The greatest among you must be your servant." This is not the way the world usually works. Generally speaking, the idea of being a servant is considered inferior to being someone who has risen to high levels of leadership or status. But Jesus wants people in positions of authority to selflessly serve those over whom they have influence. And he insists that the leaders who establish laws, rules, and guidelines do not excuse themselves from following their own directives! "Practice what you preach," as the saying goes.

Whether or not we have extensive public influence, almost all of us at certain points are in a position to exercise leadership—with our children and families, with classmates, coworkers, neighbors, friends, and sometimes strangers. When these moments arise, we are called to step into this role without being hypocrites. It's important to be sure we don't issue unrealistic demands on others that we ourselves would find it burdensome or even impossible to fulfill. This requires the virtue of humility. Instead of reveling in the authority we may have at any given moment, instead of creating "heavy burdens hard to carry and lay[ing] them on people's shoulders," we need to be ready and willing to walk a mile in their shoes, and lead accordingly. And Jesus tells us clearly that this servant leadership will be rewarded, for "whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, we traditionally remember and pray for those who have died. Here at St. Isidore's, we do this in a special way with our Book of Remembrance.

If you have deceased family members and friends that you would like our St. Isidore's community to pray for, please pick up a remembrance sheet from the book in the Chapel. Complete the form, and return it to the office or place it back in the book. Our Book of Remembrance will have a prominent place in the Chapel during the entire month as a reminder of those whose lives have touched ours and have now "gone before us, marked with the sign of faith."

Seminarian Collection

Next weekend we are participating in a special diocesan collection for our seminarians. Please keep them in prayer and consider supporting them financially by placing your contribution in an envelope marked "Seminarians" and placing it in the collection next weekend. Thank you!

Natural Family Planning Introduction to the Creighton Model System

Introductory sessions to NFP will be held in Meeting Room #1 on Monday, Nov. 13, at 7:00 p.m.; and Sunday, Dec. 10, at 3:00 p.m. These are free one-hour sessions offered by Lori Harlan, FertilityCare Practitioner. To register, please contact Lori at lharlan@gmail.com.

Silent Retreat

If you feel restless and need some time for yourself to rejuvenate your soul, consider attending the Silent Retreat on Saturday, Dec. 2, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The theme for this year's retreat is Preparation for Our Lord's Nativity. The retreat will consist of 10-minute reflections at the top of the hour about the Nativity, while the remainder of the retreat will be intentional silence. Take time to visit Jesus in Adoration and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. A sign-up sheet is available in the lobby; or if you would like more information, contact Robert Jennings at rjennings@stisidores.com. This retreat is open to both students and permanent community members.
