Aug. 19, 2018 20th Sunday Ordinary Time

Welcome to All Students!

Welcome! We are glad you are here. It is my desire that everyone who walks through our doors will have the opportunity to explore the most important life questions in a non-threatening way. As we strive to create a place where you can come to discover eternal truths, we also hope to create an atmosphere where you will be able to form beautiful and authentic friendships that will last a lifetime.

C.S. Lewis once said, "Christianity, if false, is of no importance, and if true, is of infinite importance. The only thing it cannot be is moderately important."

I find this quote to be thought provoking and challenging, especially in a world where many college students have either dismissed their faith altogether, or they have only embraced it in a half-hearted fashion. In the end, the message of Jesus Christ is either true or it isn't. This year we invite you to come to experience why so many, even in today's modern world, are still giving their life to a faith that transforms, heals, and provides a hope and a joy that will truly last forever.

God bless,
Fr. Gale
