Readings:

Is 50:5-9
Ps 116:1-9
Jas 2:14-18
Mk 8:27-35

We know the signs of defeat: slumped shoulders, downcast eyes, a chastened demeanor. For those of us sincerely trying to follow Jesus, defeat is inevitable. We commit to spending more time with our kids, but that one project still looms. We resolve to be a good person, but our selfishness strikes again. It can be easy to get discouraged over our moral failures. Today's Gospel is a small, intriguing look at this process in the life of St. Peter.

First, Jesus' questions get the Apostles thinking about his true identity. This results in a confession of faith from Peter: "You are the Christ." Eager faith characterizes Peter's relationship with Jesus. First to follow, first to leap out of the boat, and, we know, first to deny. It's the latter tendency that manifests itself later in the Gospel. When Jesus predicts the Passion, "Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him." Jesus' rebuke in turn is stinging. While Peter's caution to Jesus is in private, Jesus intentionally turns back to the others as he declares, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Like Peter, we rarely get it right all the time. Peter understood that Jesus was the Messiah, but he had a false concept of what that Messiah would accomplish. Jesus wants to make sure the rest of the disciples don't follow down the wrong road. The Christian life is a difficult one, as Jesus later tells the crowds. "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself." Yet the mercy of God is abundant. If we renew our trust and our efforts after a fall, every defeat is transformed into redemptive grace. "Whoever loses his life for my sake ... will save it."

Dialogue with Manhattan Priests

We all share in the shock and embarrassment caused by the recent revelations about clergy sexual abuse. It is always disappointing to realize that sometimes the worst sins are committed by our leaders, the very ones we look up to for guidance. How do we continue our support for and reliance on the Church in the face of such disappointment?

This is a kind of grieving for a lost trust, an attitude about the Church that has now failed us. So, what is left? To whom can we reach out for support? To each other. We need to talk about this openly, in a dialogue that could help us discover that we can support each other in our sense of loss.

St. Thomas More Parish is offering such a dialogue. On Sunday, October 7 at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Thomas More Utopia Room, parishioners of all three Manhattan Catholic parishes are invited to come together to talk openly about this crisis. All three pastors will be present. This is not so much to provide answers or solutions, and especially not excuses. It is a coming together to talk honestly, to own the issue, and to find support in one another.

Prayer Shawl

All are welcome to join the Shawl Ministry group. It is open to students as well as permanent community. Prayer Shawl knit or crochet baptismal bibs for infants and shawls and scarves for encouragement, thanks or support for others. We meet in Meeting Room #1 on Mondays at 5:30 p.m. Contact Judy Hedman at 785-341-8615 for more information.

Natural Family Planning Introduction to the Creighton Model System

An introductory session to NFP will be held in Meeting Room #1 on Sunday, Sept. 16 at 3:00 p.m. These are free one-hour sessions offered by Lori Harlan, FertilityCare Practitioner. To register, please contact Lori at lharlan@gmail.com or visit www.manhattanfertilitycare.com.

Mass Intentions

Praying for our loved ones, living and deceased, is a spiritual work of mercy and an important component of our Catholic faith. At each Mass, the priest-celebrant offers the Mass for a particular intention. That intention can be for a living person's health, well-being, or needs. A Mass intention can also be offered for the eternal rest of a deceased person. Please consider requesting Masses to be said for your special intention. An offering of $10 is requested for each intention. You may send your intention and your offering by mail or bring it to the St. Isidore's office.

Diving Deeper (Apologetic's Style)

Would you like to dive into a deeper understanding of your faith? Join us every 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month in Newman Hall to learn more about the Catholic faith.

Shoah

Shoah is a famous prize-winning film by European director Claude Lanzmann in which he interviews people who witnessed The Holocaust in Europe. Starting Monday, Sept. 10 at 7:00 in Newman Hall, we will have a weekly showing of parts of the 9 1/2 hour film and have open discussion about it. For more information, please contact Betty Stevens at bstevens210@gmail.com.
