Sept. 23, 2018 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Wis 2:12, 17-20
Ps 54:3-8
Jas 3:16-4:3
Mk 9:30-37

The Oscars. The Super Bowl. TV talent shows. Your son's Little League championship. We live in a culture set on competition. The desire to "be the best" goes beyond hobbies and into politics, the corporate world, and parenting comparisons at the park. This desire is as old as the human race, and it surely arose in Jesus' day. While Biblical society was significantly less open and upwardly mobile than our own, power was attractive. From what we know, many of Jesus' disciples had come from lowly backgrounds. Now they followed an increasingly popular rabbi who seemed primed to do something big.

Jesus does his best to dissuade their high hopes by prophesying his own defeat. "The Son of Man is to be handed over ... and they will kill him." Internalizing the message proves challenging for the disciples, and their attention remains fixed on earthly glory. "They ... [discuss] among themselves on the way who was the greatest." True to style, Jesus flips their pretensions on their heads. "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."

We have heard these Biblical principles before. Do we believe them? In our professional lives, do we do whatever we can to get ahead, or are we concerned with the entire team succeeding? In the lives of our children, are we more concerned with victory or with building character? Jesus doesn't condemn success, but he reframes it. "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." Today's Gospel is a reality check. In God's eyes, our success will not be measured by worldly output alone but by how much love and service we offer to others in the process.

Dialogue with Manhattan Priests

We all share in the shock and embarrassment caused by the recent revelations about clergy sexual abuse. It is always disappointing to realize that sometimes the worst sins are committed by our leaders, the very ones we look up to for guidance. How do we continue our support for and reliance on the Church in the face of such disappointment?

This is a kind of grieving for a lost trust, an attitude about the Church that has now failed us. So, what is left? To whom can we reach out for support? To each other. We need to talk about this openly, in a dialogue that could help us discover that we can support each other in our sense of loss.

St. Thomas More Parish is offering such a dialogue. On Sunday, October 7 at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Thomas More Utopia Room, parishioners of all three Manhattan Catholic parishes are invited to come together to talk openly about this crisis. All three pastors will be present. This is not so much to provide answers or solutions, and especially not excuses. It is a coming together to talk honestly, to own the issue, and to find support in one another.

Praise & Worship

Do you love music? Praise & Worship is a great way to spend time with God through music and reflection. It's also a great place to meet other Catholic K-Staters! Join us Thursdays at 8:00 p.m. in the Chapel.

Homecoming Weekend - Liturgical Ministry

Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 13-14, is a time for us to remember where we have been and to reflect on where we are headed. As a visible presence of St. Isidore's rich history, for the 9:30 and 11:00 Masses, we would like to invite those who served in the past to serve with us again – as an EMHC, Minister of Hospitality, Lector, or Musician. Please contact Frank Schmeidler, franks@stisidores.com or 785-539-7496 to volunteer.

Mass Intentions

Praying for our loved ones, living and deceased, is a spiritual work of mercy and an important component of our Catholic faith. At each Mass, the priest-celebrant offers the Mass for a particular intention. That intention can be for a living person’s health, well-being, or needs. A Mass intention can also be offered for the eternal rest of a deceased person. Please consider requesting Masses to be said for your special intention. An offering of $10 is requested for each intention. You may send your intention and your offering by mail or bring it to the St. Isidore’s office.

Shoah

Shoah is a famous prize-winning film by European director Claude Lanzmann in which he interviews people who witnessed The Holocaust in Europe. Starting Monday, Sept. 10 at 7:00 in Newman Hall, we will have a weekly showing of parts of the 9 1/2 hour film and have open discussion about it.
