As we go about our days, we necessarily label, classify, and prioritize. What's "in" and what's "out" on our priority list? Because humans are social beings, we tend to do the same thing with people. We can only invite six people to the dinner party. Our young child wants to invite certain friends to her birthday, but we're keenly aware of who the parents are, and the prospect of spending several hours with them is enough to give us pause.

In today's Gospel, Jesus' disciples face a classification problem. They've seen another person driving out demons in the name of Jesus. They recognize him, a non-Apostle, as clearly "out." And yet "Jesus replied, 'Do not prevent him ... whoever is not against us is for us.'" Jesus recognizes real faith in the would-be exorcist. In our own lives, Jesus invites us to recognize others' good intentions. They should not be cut off simply because they do not line up with all our personal preferences. What, then, is deserving of such a fate?

"If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off ... if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out."

When his listeners blame others, Jesus tends to pivot the conversation to their own lives. In this case, the message is clear. What we really need to cut out is that which keeps us from Jesus. If over-commitment causes us to lose patience with our family, doubt God's providence, and become consumed with self-reliance, cut something out. If certain friendships lead us time after time into gossip and slander, cut it out. In today's Gospel, Jesus invites us to live intentionally in our discipleship. Are we ready?

The Pathways Retreat will be held November 2nd-4th. The first 15 people to sign up will be guaranteed a spot. Registration opens Friday, Oct. 5 at 6:00 a.m. on a first-come/first-serve basis. An option to campout in line to register begins on Thursday, Oct. 4 at 9:00 p.m. at St. Isidore's. Registration closes Sunday, Oct. 7 at 7:30 p.m. The remaining 15 spots will be selected randomly at that time. The cost of the retreat is $45 with t-shirt included.

Homecoming Weekend - Liturgical Ministry

Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 13-14, is a time for us to remember where we have been and to reflect on where we are headed. As a visible presence of St. Isidore's rich history, for the 9:30 and 11:00 Masses, we would like to invite those who served in the past to serve with us again – as an EMHC, Minister of Hospitality, Lector, or Musician. Please contact Frank Schmeidler, franks@stisidores.com or 785-539-7496 to volunteer.

Dialogue with Manhattan Priests

We all share in the shock and embarrassment caused by the recent revelations about clergy sexual abuse. It is always disappointing to realize that sometimes the worst sins are committed by our leaders, the very ones we look up to for guidance. How do we continue our support for and reliance on the Church in the face of such disappointment?

This is a kind of grieving for a lost trust, an attitude about the Church that has now failed us. So, what is left? To whom can we reach out for support? To each other. We need to talk about this openly, in a dialogue that could help us discover that we can support each other in our sense of loss.

St. Thomas More Parish is offering such a dialogue. On Sunday, October 7 at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Thomas More Utopia Room, parishioners of all three Manhattan Catholic parishes are invited to come together to talk openly about this crisis. All three pastors will be present. This is not so much to provide answers or solutions, and especially not excuses. It is a coming together to talk honestly, to own the issue, and to find support in one another.

Diving Deeper (Apologetic's Style)

Mass Intentions

Praying for our loved ones, living and deceased, is a spiritual work of mercy and an important component of our Catholic faith. At each Mass, the priest-celebrant offers the Mass for a particular intention. That intention can be for a living person’s health, well-being, or needs. A Mass intention can also be offered for the eternal rest of a deceased person. Please consider requesting Masses to be said for your special intention. An offering of $10 is requested for each intention. You may send your intention and your offering by mail or bring it to the St. Isidore’s office.

Shoah

Catholic Charities Disaster Relief Fund

From the Office of the Bishop

The Labor Day flood in Manhattan impacted at least 300 households. The three parishes in Manhattan (St. Thomas More, Seven Dolors and St. Isidore’s) are extending assistance to these families through Catholic Charities who is serving as an essential part of Manhattan’s Long-Term Recovery Committee. The Salina Diocese encourages parishioners who would like to support the relief effort to make donations to the Disaster Relief Fund established to help people in our diocese recover from disasters. In Manhattan, Catholic Charities will be providing financial assistance with the rebuilding process and case management.
