The Holy Family - December 30, 2018

Readings:

1 Sm 1:20-22, 24-28
 Ps 84:2-3, 5-6, 9-10
 1 Jn 3:1-2, 21-24
 Lk 2:41-52

"After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers." As we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family, this Gospel exposes us to a strange tension. While this family is one we can look to for an example, they are not quite the same family unit as everyone else. There is an otherness to Jesus, something profound. And yet, perhaps on second thought, are our families so different?

When Mary and Joseph encountered Jesus in the temple, "they were astonished." But at what? Mary's response is surprised. They're not astonished that Jesus is preaching in a place for respected teachers. They're not astonished that their son has captured the attention of the wisest men of the time period. They're astonished at his seemingly disobedient behavior! "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." All our children have an "otherness" about them, something that makes them unique and different. They are distinctly not "me." What will our own children become? What temple will they wander off to? Who will they astound?

Called and Gifted Workshop

God calls each of us to a unique purpose in life, a work of love we alone can do. The Called and Gifted workshop on Saturday, Jan. 12 in Great Bend, KS is designed to help people discern their charisms, the gifts they have been given by the Holy Spirit to do God's Work. This workshop is an opportunity to explore what your charisms might be and to receive tools to do so. Please contact Coleen Stein at 620-227-1538 or cstein@dcdiocese.org for information or to register by Jan. 3.
