(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Take Up Your Cross

When I'm interviewing people for my job as a staff writer at an archdiocesan newspaper, I like to ask them this question: at the end of your life, when you meet God, what do you want to hear Him say?

I've gotten a lot of interesting answers.

"I called and you listened."

"What tee time would you like tomorrow?"

"What were you thinking?"

"Your service made things better."

It's a question I've thought a lot about, personally. What I want to hear God say when I finally see His face is this: "You can put it down now."

When Jesus asks his disciples "Who do you say that I am?" he is not just asking them to verbalize an answer. He is asking them to do something: pick up the cross. Find the problems in this world, in this life, and throw your arms around them. Drag them to God, even if it kills you. It's not enough to stand by the sidelines, watching Christ ascend to Calvary, nodding your head in approval. Yes, I agree. Yes, I believe. Yes, Jesus, good job! You have to follow in every bloody footprint he leaves in the dust. Set your face like flint. And when you meet him at the top, you better not be empty-handed. He has a cross, he will expect you to have one, too.

I hope that I can do it. I hope that I am strong enough. I am not one of those great, hardy souls. I stumble terribly under the weight of my very small cross. I grumble as I shift it from shoulder to shoulder. But every time I have been almost at the point of giving up, almost ready to lay it down, there is something — Someone — who supports my drooping arm. The Lord God is my help.

If, at the end of everything, I hear the words, "You can put it down now," then I will know I have made it. I will know I have not failed: I took up the cross.

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."
Matthew 16:24

Study Series on The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis

Permanent community members, join us for a six-part of C.S. Lewis's book, The Great Divorce, one of his most famous works. The sessions will be Thursday October 3, 10, 17, 24, and November 7 and 14, 6pm to 7pm at St. Isidore's in Newman Hall.

Ron Ratliff, theology instructor, will lead series. Students are welcome too. No pre-registration is required. The book is a fascinating "what if" as we accompany a most unlikely group of pilgrims as they travel from Hell (The Grey Town) to the outskirts of Heaven. When they arrive, they are met by people they knew in their life on earth, with the invitation to remain in Heaven, provided they let go of the sin that damned them. The book explores the nature of the everyday decisions that, over a lifetime, move us to become saints in Heaven or damn us to Hell. Throughout the novel we will encounter a wide variety of souls who are confronted with what they did with their lives on earth. The reader will be given much to think about for our lives today and the decisions we make. We hope you and a friend join us for this thought provoking journey.

Saint of the week

St. Mary Jospheh Rossello (1811-1880) was born to a poor family in Liguria, Italy. She was prevented from entering established religious orders because she lacked a dowry. However, the bishop of Savona helped her open a school and establish her own order, which never required a fee to enter.

Prayer for Catechism Students

Dear God,
You never stop drawing us closer to You.
Pour Your grace upon these young disciples as they learn about You.
Attract them. Challenge them.
Love them. Guide them.
Bless them.
Amen.

At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.” He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.”

- Mk 8:33-34

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Isaiah stands firm in his faith as he suffered in following God’s call. Can you think of a time when you supported someone in their faith?

Second Reading:

James believed that good works are the fruit of faith. Where is there a need for good works from you this week among family or friends?

Gospel:

Jesus reveals to his disciples that as the Messiah, he is destined to suffer greatly and die, but on the third day, rise from the dead. This was difficult for Peter to accept. How do you stay open to ideas you resist?
