(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Bearing Witness

I am fascinated by minor Gospel characters. These people — the rich young man, the adulterous woman, the teachers at the temple — share the stage with Jesus only briefly. They bear passing but powerful witness to crucial moments of his earthly ministry. They breathe the air he breathes. They hear the sound of his voice. Some of them feel the touch of his skin.

And then they go on with their lives and disappear into obscurity. They become just another one of us.

I think of the child who sat in Jesus' lap while he said those famous words: "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

What did the boy think? Did he understand the words, or did he only know that they were gently spoken? Did he only think to himself how kind was the face of this man, and how consoling and warm his embrace?

I picture this child growing up. Perhaps he married and loved his wife and children. Perhaps he was happy, or perhaps he was not. Perhaps he became wealthy or was even wealthy to begin with. Perhaps he, like so many other children of that era, had only a very short life, and returned quickly to the arms that enveloped him that day in Capernaum.

We don't know. But we know he was there: he saw Christ, he felt him, he heard him. We sigh to think of it. How lucky. If only we could, too. Then it would be easier. Then we could be holy.

But we are all this child in Capernaum. We are all the woman at the well. We are all the centurion at the cross. Every time we kneel before the Host and hear the words "This is my Body," we occupy the same earthly time and space as the Messiah, and he fixes upon us the same gaze he fixed upon them.

We all bear witness.

We receive him, and then we go back to our lives, our ordinary lives.

Do we carry him with us? Do we dare?

"I will praise your name, O Lord, for its goodness." — Psalm 54:6

Study Series on The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis

Permanent community members, join us for a six-part of C.S. Lewis's book, The Great Divorce, one of his most famous works .

Ron Ratliff, theology instructor, will lead the series. Students are welcome too. No pre-registration is required. Below are the dates and chapters to be read prior to attending for that week. Books are not provided. Each session is from 6 to 7 p.m. at St. Isidore's Catholic Student Center in Newman Hall.

- October 3, Chapters 1-3
- October 10, Chapters 4-6
- October 17, Chapters 7-8
- October 24, Chapter 9
- November 7, Chapters 10-12
- November 14, Chapters 13-14

The book is a fascinating "what if" as we accompany a most unlikely group of pilgrims as they travel from Hell (The Grey Town) to the outskirts of Heaven. When they arrive, they are met by people they knew in their life on earth, with the invitation to remain in Heaven, provided they let go of the sin that damned them. The book explores the nature of the everyday decisions that, over a lifetime, move us to become saints in Heaven or damn us to Hell.

Throughout the novel we will encounter a wide variety of souls who are confounded with what they did with their lives on earth. The reader will be given much to think about for our lives today and the decisions we make. We hope you and friend will join us for this most thought provoking journey.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The apostles argue, each one claiming to be the greatest of Christ's followers. But Christ shows them who is truly the greatest — a child, one who has no thought of his own importance, one who has no ambition. Let's seek to be like that child.

Saint of the week

Often called the father of the medieval papacy and Apostle of the English, Saint Gregory (540-604) became Pope in 590. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, the consolidation of papal power, and the conversion of England.

Prayer for Children

Dear Jesus,
Wrap the young members of our family in your love.
They know how to love BIG,
even though they are still small.
Their trust can inspire, their faith can change hearts.
Help them to know you, now
and always.
Amen.

Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.”

- Mk 9:36-37

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The Jewish wisdom writer teaches us that wicked people revile and test those who are just and upright. What might be an effective way to win over a wicked person?

Second Reading:

James encourages us to be sincere and consistent in cultivating peace. Can you think of a situation this week at home or at work where you could seek peace?

Gospel:

We hear today that the disciples did not always understand Jesus and were afraid sometimes to ask him questions. How would you suggest dealing with tensions that arise in close relationships?
