14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

Loss of a Spouse

There will be a one-time seminar called "Loss of a Spouse" by GriefShare on July 28, 2025 at 6:30pm in Room B at St. Thomas More Parish, 2900 Kimball Ave. Manhattan. The seminar features video interviews with counselors, grief experts and widowed men and women.

They offer helpful insights on:

- *What to expect in the days to come
- *How to deal with the loneliness
- *What to do with your spouse's belongings
- *Why it won't always hurt this much

And other practical help for dealing with the challenges of widowhood.

Registration is a must. You can register at www.griefshare.org or email Rosie at kansas.rosie@yahoo.com.

Eucharistic Conference

This year's conference hosted by the FHSU Comeau Campus Center will also highlight the Jubilee Year of Hope theme for 2025: "Hope Does Not Disappoint." Reflecting on this message, we will be reminded that true hope, rooted in Christ, never falters or fades. Together, we will explore how the Eucharist strengthens us in our journey of hope and trust in God's promises. Please join us on August 9-10. Registration is now open here: <https://bitl.to/4Rj0>. Frequently Asked Questions about the conference: <https://bitl.to/4Rj3>.

Blood Drive

St Thomas More is having a blood drive on Thursday, July 10 in Room A . Appointments are available: 12:30-6:15pm. Please contact Alysia at 785-776-5151 to schedule an appointment.

St. Isidore's partnered with FreeWill to provide a free, online estate planning tool so you can create a will or trust at no cost to you, and can easily designate a gift to St. Isidore's in your plan.
