GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 9, 2025

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

John 2:13:22

When I was 22, I entered St. Peter's Basilica for the first time. It floored me. I could hardly take it in, its grandeur, majestic arches, vibrant colors, and the light that danced through its high windows. Somehow, amidst such splendor, I felt an overwhelming sense of belonging, as if I had finally come home.

Jesus reorients how we Catholics see sacred buildings. In today's Gospel he says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:13-22). His riddle implies, shockingly, that his own body is now the fundamental dwelling place of God and humanity. The temple in Jerusalem has been superseded.

In our churches today — whether they mirror the basilica's grandeur or embrace humble simplicity — we experience architectural symbols of Christ's risen body. It is no accident we call them "churches": they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ's body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter's, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ's resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ

— Father John Muir

Thanksgiving Dinner for Senior Citizens

Advent Series Offered for Permanent Community Women

This Advent, we can learn to wait well together. Join us to prepare for Christ's Nativity with a special program from Ascension with Fr. Mike Schmitz called Waiting Well. The program features Fr. Mike's Sunday homilies, daily reflections, prayer and opportunities for journaling. The journal is filled with beautiful art and meaningful mediations to use throughout the Advent season.

Join our women's group Wednesdays, December 3, 10 and 17 at 11am. OR join an evening session for women on Tuesdays, Dec 2, 9 and 16 at 6pm. The sessions will last one hour. We will not meet the week of Christmas, so you will need to complete the series on your own. The cost of the journal is $10. You may pay at the first session. If you would like to participate please contact Diane Mack to let her know which session you plan to attend. You can reach her at dmack@stisidores.com.

Manhattan Catholic Young Adult Group

The Manhattan Catholic Young Adult group usually meets on Tuesday evenings and occasional weekends. If you are looking at build community or meet new young adults that share your Catholic faith, you've found the right place! You are welcome to call/text Anna Jirak at 913-426-0711 or find us on Facebook and Instagram at Manhattan Kansas Catholics for more information.
