GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 1, 2026 2nd Sunday of Lent Matthew 17:1-9

When I sit down to answer emails or write a Gospel reflection or return a phone call, I sometimes wonder: Does any of this humdrum work matter? Maybe you ask the same thing about your daily labor. Today's Gospel, the Transfiguration, offers a surprising answer.

Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a mountain. There, "his face shone like the sun face and his clothes become white as light" (Matthew 17:2). That detail regarding his clothes is worth considering.

We know Jesus' body is inseparably united to the divine nature. But his clothing? That's something made by human hands. It's an artifact. And yet it shines with the same uncreated light. What does this detail mean? The early Church noted that Adam and Eve's first act after the Fall was to make clothing. This clothing symbolizes all human labor that supports our dignity. In Jesus' glorified garments, we see not just the redemption of our body, but of human effort to protect and uplift human dignity.

Parents, your family is your work. Baristas, plumbers, nurses, accountants — your labor, your emails, your phone calls, your spreadsheets — can all become radiant when offered to God in love. The question isn't just do I believe in Jesus' glory, but do I believe he can share it with the work of my hands?

Lenten Challenge: Identify the "artifact" you are making to uplift the dignity of others: your job, your home, your relationships. Consciously bring it to the Lord this Sunday at Mass. Offer it to share in His glory. It will begin to shine.

— Father John Muir

Knights of Columbus

Sunday, March 1st at 6:45pm in the church, we will be having a ceremony for all those men wanting to join the Knights of Columbus. The monthly meeting will follow upstairs in the JP11 Loft.

MCS Stations of the Cross

This Friday, March 6th at 5:15pm Manhattan Catholic School students will be putting on Living Stations for St. Isidore's.

Easter Weekend Choir

We need voices to sing for the Good Friday, Easter Vigil, and Easter Sunday services. Rehearsals will be Mondays at 7:00 pm in the Music Room. NOTE -You do not have to sing at all the services to participate.

For Easter Vigil or Easter Sunday, rehearsals are March 2, March 9, and March 30.

For Good Friday, rehearsals are March 23, and March 31 (Tuesday). For any questions, contact Frank at franks@stisidores.com.

St. Joseph Adoration Chapel Celebrates 31 Years

On Sunday March 15, 2026 we will celebrate 31 years of the St Joseph Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Chapel with a 5:30pm Benediction and Exposition at Seven Dolores Church. It will be followed by light refreshments in the basement and recognition of long term adorers. All current and past adorers and their families are invited, and others are welcome to attend too.

FreeWill

St Isidore's partnered with FreeWill to provide a free, online estate planning tool so you can create a will or trust at no cost to you, and can easily designate a gift to St. Isidore's in your plan.
